Under DGCA CAR Section 3 – Air Transport Series M, Part IV, the rules state:

"In case of flight cancellation initiated by the airline, passengers shall be offered alternate flight arrangements at no additional cost, subject to availability and passenger consent."

BUT THEY DID THIS WITHOUT MY CONSENT -This means:

- No extra charges for rebooking on another flight.
- Availability matters: The airline must have seats on an alternate flight.
- Passenger consent is required: You can decline the alternate flight and opt for a refund instead.

Official Source

You can find this clause in the Passenger Charter of Rights by the Ministry of Civil Aviation

Would you like help drafting a formal request to your airline for alternate arrangements or a refund?
